Dear Brethern,

Here we are now coming to the end of the sixth week of lockdown and the seventh week of no Provincial visitations and as yet no confirmation of any of our Brethern being inflicted with the dreadful Covid 19 virus and long may this continue.

As a result of the lockdown we have been unable to conduct eight Lodge visitations and a Quarterly Communication, the last lodge visitation of the season should have been held last Tuesday night at Strathdon and what a lovely evening it was, had we been able to journey there and take in the Donside scenery. The situation regarding the visitations will be addressed in due course once we know when we can conduct meetings.

In the meantime, stay safe, take care, keep in touch and this evening tune in to the VE Day celebrations on BBC 1 and listen to Katherine Jenkins singing the old wartime favourite

WE'LL MEET AGAIN

Till then Brethern,
Look after yourselves and your families

Jim
